Nau Mai, Haere Mai Welcome

Nau mai, haere mai, Warmest welcome to you all. This week's Maori proverb (or whakataukii) says: "He aroha whakato, he aroha puta mai" (If kindness you sow, then kindness you shall receive). Praise the Lord! Welcome to another online church service. Thank you, Lord for the diverse languages in our world and that You unite us all in the bond's of love.

What's On This week?

Monday Morning Ladies Prayer Meeting:

On hold for now.... But, pray a blessing for our ladies who generously pray for us. Let's remember Ailsa, Anne, Dawn, Viv and Shirley. God bless you ladies with strength and wisdom and kindness. Specially pray for Waimarie in her new home in Huntly.

Monday Evening Bible Study: 6:30pm – 7:30

Online See our website for instructions on how to join.

For those of you who can't make it to the session, how about you spend 10 minutes sometime this week, reading over a passage from the book of Revelation and see what the Lord reveals to you...

Prayer Requests: Ask Jesus - see what happens! You can also go to our website and leave a request for prayer from our prayer team.

Special congratulations to Sam and Natalie! We are so proud of you for doing so well in the College speech finals. No one can accuse you of burying your talents in the ground. Kia kaha! Well done to both of you – we love you guys!

Inā kei te mohio koe ko wai koe, I

kei te anga atu ki hea

If you know who you are and where you are from, then you will know where you are going

Here's a thought:

Christ has become our identity. The Kingdom of God is our inheritance. We are part of a great line of God's children – of Christians throughout the ages who stand up for Christ and share the Good News of redemption and salvation.

If we know we are saved by the blood of the Lamb we can know with confidence we have an eternity with God.

It's as simple as knowing who we are in Christ, knowing what we have been saved from and knowing where we are going in God. It's more than we deserve and so much more than we can dare to imagine. God is so good. Remember to thank Him and have a good week. God bless!
